

Week of March 29

Monday: Fellowship with Family Activity - Bouncing Balloons

This is a “yo-yo” type activity that is a fun hand eye coordination challenge – for both your child and you!

Materials:

Multi colored balloons

Play dough, sand or flour

Scissors

Large rubber band or multiple small bands

Masking tape

Directions:

1. Fill the balloon with the play dough, sand or flour. Then tie the balloon shut.
2. Cut some small holes into a second balloon. Carefully stretch the second balloon over the play dough-filled balloon, allowing the color of the lower balloon to peek through the top layer holes.
3. Tie the rubber band around the knot in the balloon. If your rubber band is not long enough, make a “string” of bands by tying them to each other.

4. To play, draw an X on the floor with tape and use it as a target. Try to bounce the yo-yo on the object to see how many times you can bounce it.

Modifications for Younger Kids:

Skip the rubber bands and game. Let the kids squish the filled yo-yo ball

Modifications for Older Kids:

Set up a series of numbered X's on the floor in random pattern and instruct the child to work through the numbers in sequence. Each time an incorrect number is hit, the game starts over at the number one.

Thursday: Service - KidZone Volunteer Highlight Patti Epley

Tell us about yourself.

Wife to Wade, mother to Richard, Norman and Elisha. Grandmother of 5 and great grand of 1. Accepted Christ at 11 years old and have been serving in Sunday school since that time. Teaching children since 16 years old and here in KidZone kindergarten about 19 years.

Why do you volunteer in the KidZone ministry?

Here is where I know God called me to serve and I take that very seriously. I do not baby sit. Serving in KidZone is as important as going to another country, the need is the same in many ways.

What do you like best about serving in the KidZone ministry?

I love the children and their families. I love teaching these very important children about God and how He loves them and will always love them and care for them. Some of these children only hear about God here on Sunday morning in our Sunday School. I want to and love to make it fun. I am blessed to be a part of a very important beginning of some of our youngest Parkway family members.

Friday: Missions - Bless Bardstown

Each week a specific group of people in our community will be listed to have the children write a note or a card. This is another way we can love the people where we live like Christ during these trying times. We encourage you to help your child share scriptures and prayers in the cards to these people. Also, you could pray with your child for this person. This week we will be focusing on sending cards to a nursing home resident. If you do not know someone personally, please call the Church office at 502-348-4677 and we can get you connected with a nursing home resident at our Church!
